

Ham Radio Class

(Part of the Eagle Rock Library's
Preparing for Uncertain Times Series)

One of the most valuable things in an emergency situation is information. If communications were cut off, how would you find out what was going on? Ham radio is the answer! Not only does ham radio give you and your family an information lifeline if communications were ever disrupted, but it's also a fun way of communicating with people throughout our country and the world.

- What: A ham radio class that will teach you the basics of ham radio operation, culminating with the Technician Class license test.
- When: Bi-weekly classes starting on August 13th and going to October 15th (each class will be held from 5:30pm-7:30pm).
- Where: The Eagle Rock Library (55 Eagles Nest Drive, Eagle Rock, VA 24085)
- Cost: The class itself is free, but you will need to purchase the book Ham Radio License Manual with CD (ARRL Ham Radio License Manual) by H. Ward Silver (available on Amazon.com for around $20.00). There will also be a $15.00 fee for the license examination which will take place at the end of the class series.
- How do I register?: Stop by the Eagle Rock Library or call us at 540-884-3880.

"When all else fails, ham radio gets through."
